

What are the parts of the body called?

penis

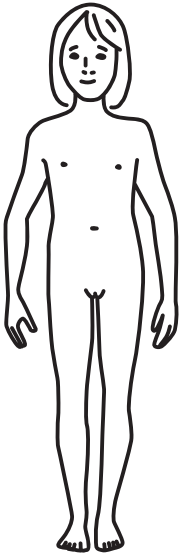

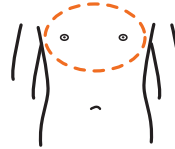

face

arm

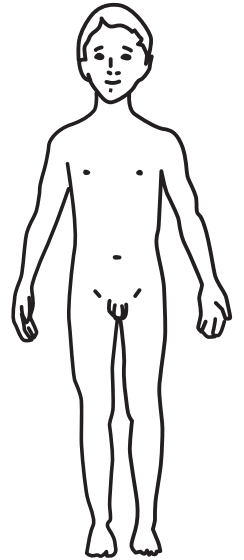

nipples

leg

hand

vulva

feet

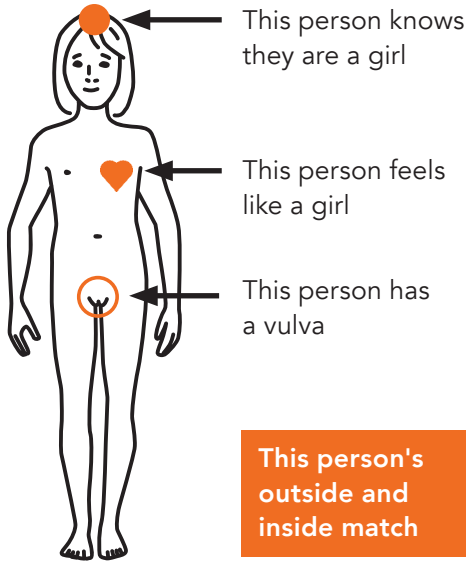

belly button

What are the parts of the body called?

Teacher Reference Sheet to help with explanations around gender diversity.

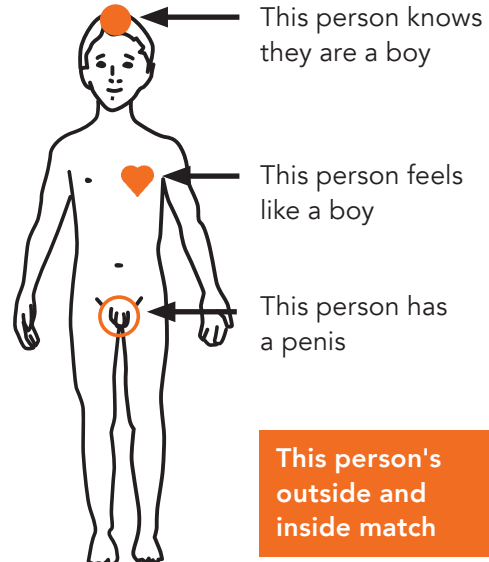

This person knows they are a girl

This person feels like a girl

This person has a vulva

This person's outside and inside match

People would see this person as girl.

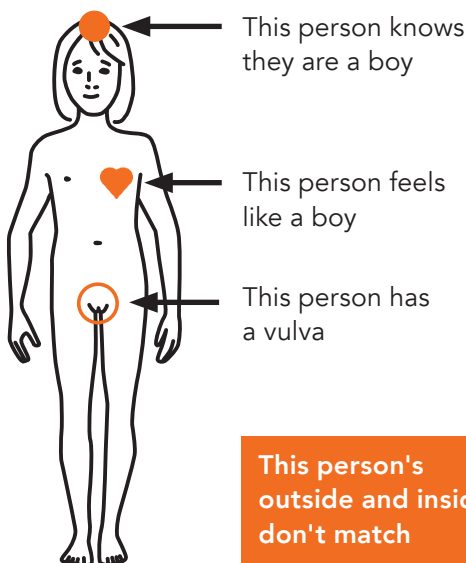

This person knows they are a boy

This person feels like a boy

This person has a penis

This person's outside and inside match

People would see this person as boy.

This person knows they are a boy

This person feels like a boy

This person has a vulva

This person's outside and inside don't match

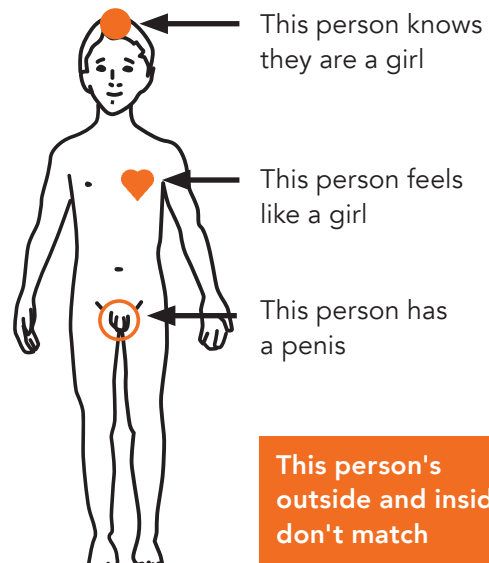

People might assume this person is a girl.

Is this person a girl?

How would this person feel?

Do you think they would want other people to see them as a boy or a girl?

What's more important - body, or brain and heart?

This person knows they are a girl

This person feels like a girl

This person has a penis

This person's outside and inside don't match

People might assume this person is a boy.

Is this person a boy?

How would this person feel?

Do you think they would want other people to see them as a boy or a girl?

What's more important - body, or brain and heart?